

Celebrate: Assessment

Let's give some honest consideration to the art of celebration in our lives. Here are some things for your leadership team to consider.

1. Name and describe one of the best parties or celebration events you have ever experienced.

What was being celebrated?

Who was involved?

Describe why it was such a positive experience for you.

2. When was the last time your church held a celebration event?

What was celebrated?

What lasting impact did the celebration event produce?

3. Would you say the your church leadership expresses a culture of celebration weekly, monthly, quarterly, periodically, annually, or rarely? Explain your answer.

4. Review the following church communication opportunities. Rate each one by the culture of celebration it communicates with our red, yellow, and green indicators.

Website ● ● ●

Publications ● ● ●

Social Media ● ● ●

Stage Language ● ● ●

Leadership Venues ● ● ●

Are there any immediate changes you can make to improve a communication channel quickly?

5. Think of a person who has the gift of encouragement and affirmation. Describe their behaviour as an encourager.

What fruit have you experienced in your life because of their affirmation and encouragement?

6. Would you say that you, as a leader, express a culture of affirmation and encouragement weekly, monthly, quarterly, periodically, annually, or rarely? Explain your answer.

7. What one thing will you do this week to begin to make celebration of generosity and its impact a greater priority for you as an individual?

8. What one thing can your church do in the near future to make the celebration of generosity and its impact a greater priority?