

Lead: Assessment

Let's assess the generosity potential of your staff and key leaders. Complete the assessment below and discuss.

1. The home in which we were raised has a significant impact on how we view and handle money today. Draw a line on the scales below that most reflects your current situation.

Poor Middle-Class Affluent

Raised by Savers Raised by Managers Raised by Spenders

Money Was a Closed/Negative Discussion Money Was an Open/Positive Discussion

Never Gave Tithed Gave Above & Beyond

2. Today, how would you describe your financial decisions and habits? Draw a line on the scales below that most reflects your current situation.

Poor Middle-Class Affluent

I am a Saver I am a Manager I am a Spender

Money Is a Closed/Negative Discussion Money Is an Open/Positive Discussion

Never Give Tithe Give Above & Beyond

3. Describe a 2-3 biblical principles related to generosity that you are confident are taught in scripture. You can think of Bible stories, verses, or sermons you heard that have stuck with you.

4. Have you ever taken a personal financial budgeting course? Please list the course title below.

5. Name a few areas where you feel you possess financial leadership confidence. Think in both arenas of home and work.

6. Name a few areas where you would like to increase your confidence and competence in leading financially both at home and work.

7. How would you describe the conversation surrounding finance in your church? Is it more positive, negative, or non-existent? What makes it so in your opinion?

8. Describe one great financial story that exists in the history of your church.

9. Describe a financial mistake or pain that is affecting/has affected your church.

10. Make a list of ways your staff and church leaders can positively grow a generous culture.

11. Which staff members, church leaders, ministries, and teams need to provide key leadership if your church is to become more generous and financially strong?