

Lead: Yearly Goals Sheet

As you have worked through the content in the Lead stage of the Generosity Cycle, it is time to summarize where you are in the short and long-term. Remember, you are on a steady development pace so do not be discouraged by feeling behind or attempt to get everything accomplished in the next three months.

Let's set some visionary, yet reasonable goals to stage your future.

Resource River Tool

1. What are the most important takeaways from this exercise? Make a list of no more than 5-10 items.

2. If you could only accomplish four of these items in the next twelve months, which four would you select? (1 per quarter)

3. Record the remaining items here for future years.
