RON BLUE
INSTITUTE

1. We would like to thank 12 Stone Church and Ron Blue Institute for providing these sermon and small group outlines. This series was originally done via an exclusive partnership between these two organizations. We are grateful for both sharing their resources with Generosity by LifeWay subscribers.

2. All of the individual sermon and small group outlines are identical. The only difference is the order in which they appear.

a. In the Master Your Money-MYM version the order is:

- i. Spend Less Than You Earn
- ii. Avoid The Use Of Debt
- iii. Give Generously
- iv. Set Long Term Goals

b. In the Master Your Money-NE? version the order is:

- i. Spend Less Than You Earn
- ii. Give Generously
- iii. Avoid The Use Of Debt
- iv. Set Long Term Goals

3. The reason we provided two versions of this series is to follow the chapter order of Ron's two books on personal money management. If you desire your church to read one book verses another, we wanted the order of the sermons to match the order of the chapters in the appropriate book.

a. Master Your Money with Ron and Michael Blue \(2016\), is a comprehensive book on personal money management. This will be a great tool for both the pastor and small group leader. It distinguishes itself with a more detailed and technical approach to personal money management. There will be several spreadsheets, graphs, and tools to help the reader develop a comprehensive plan. This resource can be purchased at LifeWay.com/generosity.

b. Never Enough? by Ron Blue and Karen Guess \(2017\) contains the same great wisdom of Master Your Money, but leads more with principles and values. It simplifies the budget planning process into one easy to understand pie chart, Live, Give, Owe, and Grow. If you are desiring your entire church to read a book together and create a personal financial plan, Never Enough? is less technical and may have a wider appeal. Never Enough? can be purchased at LifeWay.com/generosity.

c. When the sermon and small group outlines refer to a specific story, quote, or chart in the book, this information is contained in Master Your Money (2016).

4. There are a variety of media files included for the series.

- a. Master Your Money Title Slide
- b. Master Your Money Promo or Bumper Video
- c. Blue Blank Slide
- d. Slide with Steps Backwards and Forwards
- e. Social Media Share Square

5. Each sermon was first delivered at 12 Stone Church. You are provided a link with each sermon outline to these sermons as they were delivered for your reference as you prepare.
